NEW ART MARKET OPENING IN ST. CLAIR, MICHIGAN

Le Marché will provide local artists with a place to sell their work

St. Clair, MI – A new art market with a French-country feel is opening early this fall in the St. Clair Riverview Plaza. Located at the south side of the plaza, the 5,000 square foot space will hold upwards of 40 artists and crafters. This market is unique as each booth is built to look like separate rooms, giving distinction to each artist.

Vendors have the option to rent multiple booth sizes or wall space. All new vendors will receive one month of free rent, as a way to help ease the struggle many are facing due to the cancellation of art shows and craft fairs.

Vendors of all types are encouraged to apply for a booth, visit www.lemarchestclair.com for an electronic application.

Classroom space will also be available allowing vendors to offer workshops to the public. The space will also be available for event rental.

A grand opening is planned for later this fall.
